

Shop with a clear conscience!

7th Annual

FAIR TRADE & CONSCIOUS GIFTS HOLIDAY BAZAAR

Tired of submerging your conscience every holiday season?

Tired of battling the crowds at the mall?

Buying gifts for your loved ones should not have to violate your ethics.

Don't spend your hard earned dollars at the mall, buying overpriced gifts made in countries with no labor or environmental protections!

Saturday December 1st
10am to 3pm

Immanuel Presbyterian Church (Geneva Room)
3300 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90005

Browse through a large selection of affordable, sweat-shop free arts and crafts made by artisans internationally and locally, including embroidered pillow-covers, wallets and purses from Afghanistan, locally made jewelry, blankets, scarves and tote-bags, candles, soaps, oils, fair trade coffee & honey, conscious books, CDs, and including the famous soup beans by the Women's Bean Project...plus much more!

Co-Sponsored by 9to5 Los Angeles and the Afghan Women's Commission

FREE ENTRANCE
& complementary refreshments while you shop

All proceeds will directly benefit the artists and workers who made the items.

More information at www.9to5california.org